Western Alliance Bancorporation today announced that the company is ranked #2 on S&P Global Market Intelligence's ranking of best regional banks for 2017. The banking organization also held the same position for 2016.

S&P Global Market Intelligence ranked the best-performing regional banks using six core financial metrics that focus on profitability, asset quality and loan growth for the year ended December 31, 2017. The metrics included return on average tangible common equity, net charge-offs as a percentage of average loans, adjusted Texas ratio, efficiency ratio, net interest margin and loan growth.

This latest honor adds to the list of recent accolades earned by Western Alliance, including #2 on the Forbes 2018 "Best Banks in America" list, Institutional Investor's 2018 All-America Executive Team, and inclusion on Fortune magazine's 2017 list of "100 Fastest Growing Companies," among others.
